INDEX OF MULTIPLE DEPRIVATION 2015

What is it?

The Index of Multiple Deprivation 2015 (IMD 2015) combines a number of indicators, chosen to cover a range of economic, social and housing issues, into a single deprivation score for each small area in England. This allows each area to be ranked relative to one another according to their level of deprivation. As with the 2010 indices, IMD 2015 has been produced at Lower Super Output Area level (LSOA), of which there are 32,844 in the country. There are 152 LSOAs in Milton Keynes.

The 2015 Index of Multiple Deprivation (IMD) was published in September 2015. The Index has been constructed by the Social Disadvantage Research Centre at the University of Oxford for the Department of Communities and Local Government. A summary of the methods and data used to work out the index can be downloaded from the Mki Observatory website - Index of Multiple Deprivation \(2015\).

The Indices are used widely to analyse patterns of deprivation, identify areas that would benefit from special initiatives or programmes and as a tool to determine eligibility for specific funding streams.
